

JANET VAUGHAN ROBERTSON BOND COUNSEL

As head of SLHA's public finance practice, Robertson works diligently to guide you through every step of the bond process.

We have an in-depth understanding of bond financing for charter schools, as well as years of experience in bank lending, securities law, project finance, private placements, secured transactions, asset securitizations, repurchase agreements, interest rate swaps and loan workouts.

Robertson has over 30 years of experience representing borrowers, lenders and issuers in 501(c)(3) bond issues and bank financings.

SLHA's priority is to support and protect our clients' interests during the bond process while mitigating risk.

Robertson is a Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation -- one of the highest honors bestowed upon a member of the State Bar of Texas. Selection is based on an outstanding record in the legal profession and proven commitment to the community at large.

HIGHLIGHTS

Bond Counsel &
Disclosure Counsel

Representation throughout life cycle of a bond financing, including real estate and construction matters, environmental issues, utility regulation, other transactional matters and potential litigation.

TESTIMONIAL

"Janet made the process so easy to understand. If there was ever a need to author a book on making Bond financing easy, it should be written by her. I was very happy to work with her!"

DR. VICENTE DELGADO
CEO/SUPERINTENDENT

Golden Rule Schools, Inc.

